The performance data quoted above represents past performance and do not guarantee future results. Current performance of the Fund may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by calling +1 (866) 362-8333. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Returns greater than one year are annualized. Performance may reflect agreements to limit the Fund's expenses, which would further reduce returns if not in effect. The Fund's other share classes may have different return characteristics. The institutional share class expense ratio is 0.75%.

Understanding Investment Risk

The Fund invests in foreign securities, which will involve greater volatility and political, economic, and currency risks and differences in accounting methods. It also invests in emerging markets, which involve unique risks, such as exposure to economies less diverse and mature than the US or other more established foreign markets. Economic and political instability may cause larger price changes in emerging markets securities than other foreign securities. As described more fully in the Fund's prospectus, the Fund is also subject to risks of active management, investing in equities, small, medium and large cap investing, market risk, investment style, foreign currency, emerging markets, geographic focus, depository receipts, Stock Connect investing, participation notes, large subscriptions and redemptions, liquidity, IPOs and non-diversification. It is possible to lose money by investing in securities. The Fund is non-diversified.
